

Become an AET Country Ambassador!

Responsibilities of Country Ambassadors:

- ★ Ensure that transport organisations and individuals in their countries are adequately informed about AET and its aims and objectives and that they receive timely information in relation to ETC each year.
- ★ The Ambassador can also use any suitable opportunity to disseminate AET and ETC relevant information and publications. The Ambassador will be in contact with both an AET's Board designated member and any national organisations that can help disseminate AET/ETC information.
- ★ Ambassadors will also be expected to prepare a short text on their activities including information on main transport events-activities in their countries, which may be of interest to other AET members, to be included in the AET newsletter.
- ★ In contact with AET's Board, Ambassadors can also identify and make first contact with distinctive transport professionals in their countries who would be prepared to come to ETC as invited speakers on a subject of great interest to a wider audience or who would be prepared to participate as Programme Committee members when vacancies appear.
- ★ The Ambassadors will participate in a meeting with the AET Board's designated members, held at the ETC every year, reporting on their activities, exchanging information and views on AET membership in their countries and reconfirming their willingness to volunteer for the next year.
